

I am absolutely against allowing BPL! As a ham radio operator (N8KLI), I am unable to use my HF priveledges due to continuous RF noise radiating from power lines or conducted by power lines in my neighborhood. They should not be allowed to do ANYTHING that might increase their harmful interference. Require them to clean up the mess they have and implement reliability enhancements BEFORE considering putting more noise on their enormous radiating array.